- (1) Walk up Blake Dene Road from its junction with Sandbanks Road and at the junction with Austin Avenue, turn right on to a footpath.

Come out onto a road, Brownsea View Avenue.

- (2) Cross the road, bearing slightly right, to get to the footpath in the corner, Footpath 57 to Anthony's Avenue.

Retrace your steps. At the triangular clearing, bear right, and right again at the next junction. When you see the block of flats, turn right into the

- (3) Go straight across the next road and soon pass a school on your left.

Turn right onto the school entrance driveway and then right onto Lilliput Road. Pass one estate road on your right.

- (4) Turn left along a minor road signed as a bridleway. Soon, at a cross path go straight ahead into a small wood. Arrive at a road and turn right and then immediately left into Minterne Road.
- (5) At the T-junction turn right into Bingham Avenue/Allington Road. Take the second left into Allington Close and soon take the footpath on your right, which emerges into Shore Road.
- (6) Turn right and cross the road (now called Sandbanks Road). When you come to a boat club house on your left, take the tarmac path that forks left off the road to go down to a promenade along the harbour's edge. Walk along the promenade.
- (7) At the end of the promenade, take the steps up on your right to reach Sandbanks Road again, remembering to turn and admire the view, from the well-known Evening Hill view point, as you come to the top of the steps.
